

Name _____

Asia

Lesson 3: Where People Live

PLACE

- Use Focus on Crowded Countries on page 92 to complete the following sentences.
 - _____ Asian countries have nearly half the world's population.
 - Most Asians live in _____ areas.
 - The countries of China, India, Indonesia, Pakistan, Bangladesh, and Japan make up _____ percent of the world's land.
 - Shanghai, China, is home to about _____ million people.
- Use the World Population circle graph on page 92 to rank the following countries by population, with 1 being the most populated country and 6 the least.

a. _____ India	d. _____ Bangladesh
b. _____ Pakistan	e. _____ China
c. _____ Japan	f. _____ Indonesia

REGIONS

- Use the Population Map on page 93 to complete the table below.

Place	People per Sq. Mile
Most of eastern China
Most of western Iran
Most of Saudi Arabia
Most of India
Northern Russia

- Use the information about India and Indonesia on page 93 to answer the following questions.
 - Is India larger or smaller than the 48 states in land area? _____
 - How many times larger is India's population than the United States? _____
 - Does most of Indonesia's population live in urban or rural areas? _____

LOCATION

▶ 5. Turn to the Political Map of Asia on pages 86–87. Look carefully at the locations of countries, cities, and bodies of water.

a. Close your atlas and label the following places on the map below.

- | | | |
|--------------|--------|---------------|
| Philippines | Turkey | Pacific Ocean |
| China | Russia | Indian Ocean |
| Iran | Tokyo | Arctic Ocean |
| Saudi Arabia | Mumbai | Europe |

b. Open your atlas and make any necessary corrections.

