

Name _____

United States

Lesson 3: Where People Live

RELATIONSHIPS WITHIN PLACES

- Use the Energy Resources map on page 47 to determine whether each of the following statements is true or false. Write T or F in the space provided.
 - _____ There are more known coal reserves in Illinois than oil reserves.
 - _____ Alaska has no known natural gas reserves.
 - _____ Texas has oil, natural gas, coal, and uranium reserves.
 - _____ Utah has more known uranium reserves than any other state.
- Use the Energy Supply and Demand graph on page 47 to complete the following sentences.
 - The United States _____ more than three times the oil that it produces.
 - The United States produces about _____ quadrillion BTUs of natural gas per year.
 - The United States consumes more _____ than coal.
- Use the Land Use map on page 48 to match the following places with their land use.

Place	Land Use
a. most of Arizona •	• ranching or herding
b. northern Wisconsin •	• no widespread use
c. most of Ohio •	• forestry
d. most of Alaska •	• commercial farming

MOVEMENT

- Use the Major Highways map on page 48 to answer the following yes or no questions. Write Y or N in the space provided.
 - Would you pass through Portland if you travelled from Seattle to San Francisco? _____
 - Are there more major highways in the West than the East? _____
 - Do two major highways intersect in Las Vegas, Nevada? _____

REGIONS

- Use Focus on Where Americans Live on page 49 to answer the following questions.
 - Do more Americans live in urban areas or rural areas today? _____
 - Do more people live on the east coast or the west coast? _____
 - Where are the fastest-growing cities in the United States? _____

- ▶ 6. Use the Population map on page 49 to rank the following areas in order of population, with 1 being the most populated area and 4 the least.
- a. _____ Las Vegas, Nevada
 - b. _____ most of Montana
 - c. _____ Birmingham, Alabama
 - d. _____ western Tennessee

LOCATION

7. Turn to the Political Map on pages 40–41. Look carefully at the locations of states, cities, and bodies of water.
- a. Close your atlas and label the following on the map below.

Alaska	California	Atlantic Ocean
Texas	Washington, D.C.	Pacific Ocean
Montana	Phoenix	Great Lakes
Georgia	Chicago	Gulf of Mexico
 - b. Open your atlas and make any necessary corrections.

