

Last Name
Class - Subject
Date

Assignment Title p.

1. Do not write the question

2. Answer in complete sentences. A complete sentence begins with a capital letter, ends with an appropriate end mark, contains a subject, and a verb. It must also make sense.

A complete answer should fully answer the original question. It should include the answers to Who? What? When? Where? Why? and How? Do not assume your audience knows what the original question was or what the answer should be

3. Skip one line between answers.

4. Use only blue or black ink.

5. Turn in your best work.

