What Should I Do?

You are 18 years old. What if you received a credit card offer in the mail? Would you apply for the card because you think it could be beneficial to you, or would you refuse the card because you think it could be bad for you? Make your decision and write a paragraph about: (1) why you applied for the card and how it could be beneficial to you, or (2) why you refused the card and how it could be bad for you. State at least three reasons for your decision. Be sure to support your reasons with details and examples.
